

Free speech was the coren stone of our fight with the brits and should be no less important now.